FORT HAYS KANSAS STATE COLLEGE

HAYS, KANSAS

the 1953 REVEILLE

FORT HAYS KANSAS STATE COLLLEGE HAYS, KANSAS

Willard Peterson—Editor
Eldon Laidig—Business Manager
Jack Hunsley—Photographer

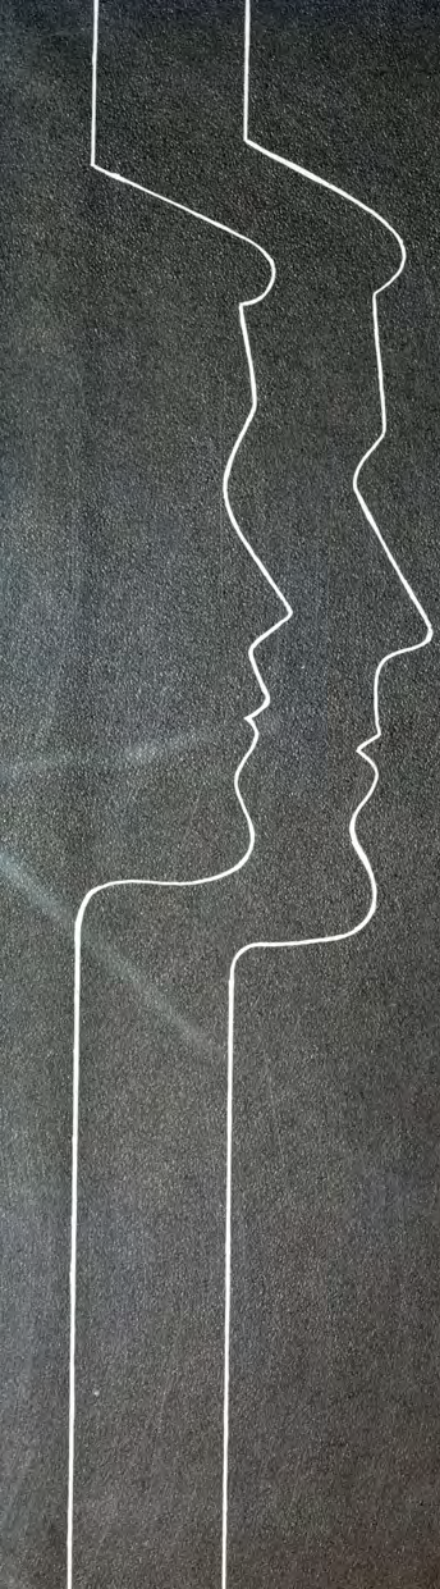

Fortunate indeed have been the students of 1952-53 who were privileged to be a part of the celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of Fort Hays State.

As the college begins its second half-century of educational service to Western Kansas, its students well realize the ever-growing importance of Fort Hays State in the large area which falls within its sphere of influence.

DEDICATION

To Mrs. Nita M. Landrum

who, for nearly twenty years, has given her energy, her ability for organization, and her great capacity for understanding to the students and graduates of Fort Hays State.

As executive secretary of the Alumni Association, Mrs. Landrum serves as the strongest tie between the college and the thousands of former students, scattered throughout the world—

As supervisor of correspondence study, she provides helpful direction to off-campus students—

As supervisor of the college loan funds, she offers sympathetic assistance to students with financial problems—

Mrs. Landrum's sincere devotion to Fort Hays State is so deep-rooted it amounts to a veritable way of life.

The 1953 Reveille

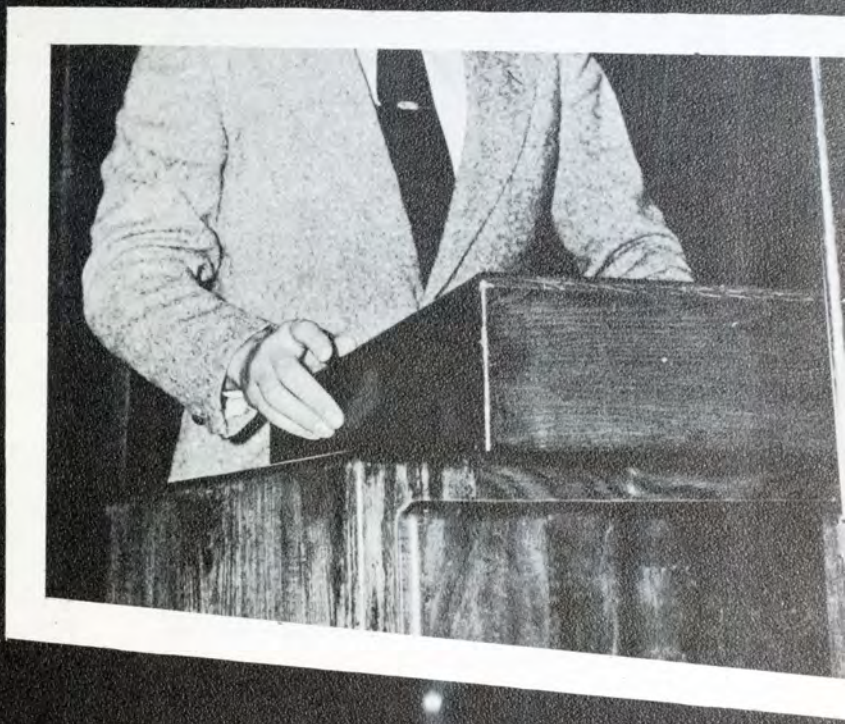

is respectfully dedicated to

MRS. NITA M. LANDRUM,

who has become a Fort Hays tradition.

October 25, 1952

Dear Mr. Peterson:

The men of the USS BOXER will be pleased to assist in chosing your yearbook queen.

Arrangements will be made to have all the crew participate in the voting, which I understand will be shortly after 15 November.

Any further information which you may be able to give us for our own publicity purposes will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

The students in nurse education and some of their routine and equipment are pictured above.

NURSE EDUCATION

Added to the Fort Hays State curriculum in the fall of 1952, a three-year program of nurse education is under the direction of Miss Leora Stroup.

Fifteen girls and one lone, but extremely popular, male constituted the pioneer class.

And, just for fun, here is what happened to a perfectly good public relations man when he volunteered to help Miss Stroup get Judy (who is life-weight, as well as life-size) into bed for a publicity picture.

Troy Crowder is the victim; Jack Hunsley the alert photographer.

Cheerleaders Dorothy Tokushige, Evelyn Gardiner, Joy Mishler, Billie Bertram, Charlotte Hardin.

The drum majorettes: Linda Warner, Pat Sullivan, Shirley Thomas, Joyce Brungardt, Sue McClusky.

EVERY MAN A TIGER

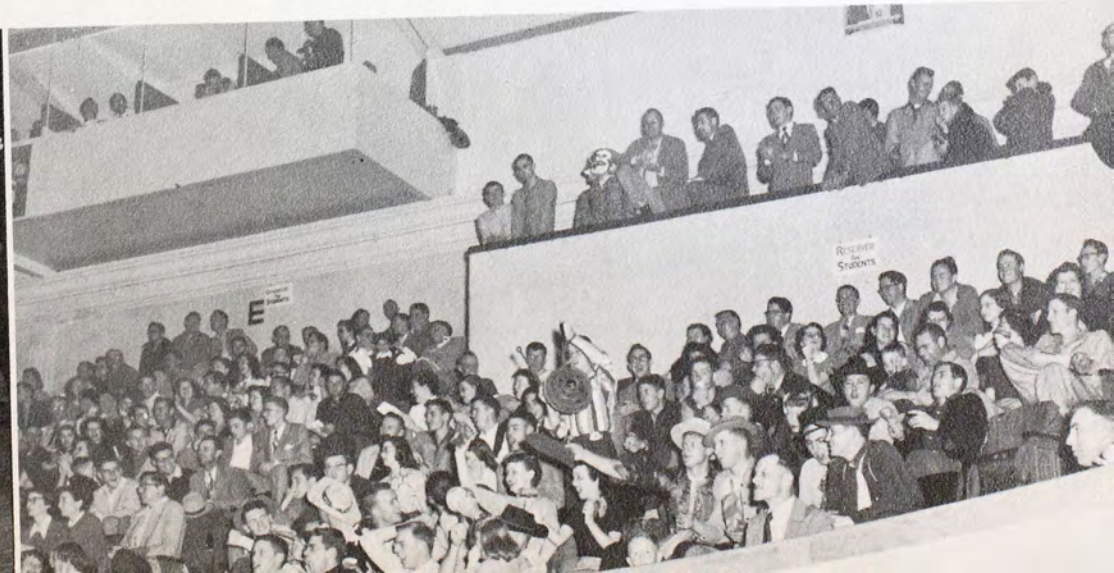

A lot of planning goes into school spirit which ends up seeming completely spontaneous.

A special tribute is due Ronald Hopkins, who promoted, organized, and executed the booster trip to Topeka for the Washburn game.

Hats off to Hoppy!

The Phi Sigs made things lively by appearing in a wildly costumed body for the all-important Emporia encounter.

THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Students of 1952-53 will not soon forget the big two-day celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of Fort Hays State.

The pageant, "The Fort Hays State Story" was a memorable event—a good show in anybody's book.

Nearly half of the student body had some job to do in connection with the celebration, but everyone wearily agreed that it was well worth the effort.

A Custer Hall scene of 1926.

Buffalo Bill, General Forsyth, Calamity ane, and Wild Bill Hickok stepped right out of the pages of history.

Kirk Naylor, of the faculty, portrayed William S. Picken, the first principal of the school, in this early-day classroom scene.

With the haunting accompaniment of the and, the orchestra, and the a cappella noir, the story of the development of the ollege was told to a capacity crowd of iends and alumni of the college.

Ronald Gridley as William A. Lewis at a dinner celebrating the college's independence from Emporia.

Present day students turned back the hands of time to represent a scene at Camp Lewis during the depression.

In each scene of the pagent, the spotlight paused for a moment on a tableau of a boy and girl in period costume, engaged in some activity typical of the period the scene was portraying.

At the assembly convocation, Miss Anne Laughlin, far left, one of the college's most distinguished alums, returned from Washington, D. C., to give an inspiring address. Music was by Mrs. Mildred Albertson Newport, now of Davenport, Iowa, who was a popular entertainer during her college days.

Portraits of the four former presidents of the college were unveiled in an impressive ceremony, with students from each man's era returning to do the unveiling.

In the afternoon, the two new buildings were officially opened. Below, left, Dean Emeritus Agnew and Mrs. McKenna sit in the luxurious new parlor and discuss the days when they shared many problems when Mrs. McKenna was housemother of Custer and Miss Agnew dean of women.

Also shown is some of the tea pouring at the new Applied Arts building. Just below, Joel Moss proudly hands out bulletins to visitors in the new domain.

More Alumni who came back.

Naomi Griffith Mosier

And on top of all that—

HOMECOMING

The Queen was Elizabeth Belden, a senior from Beloit.

The campaign was a hot one, and the cleverest campaign stunt (see below) did not necessarily insure a winner.

The attendants, shown below in the parade, were Mary Anne Willour, Jennie Mayhew, Joy Mishler, and Marianne Rouse.

Everywhere there were crowds of people—lining the streets to watch the Fort Hays State band leading the parade—filling the stadium for the football game—and packing the Coliseum arena for the dance, with Tex Beneke's orchestra furnishing the music.

Everywhere you turned, somebody had put out some sort of a Fiftieth Anniversary banner or symbol.

The freshman class thought this one up for in front of the Coliseum.

Sigma Alpha Iota stuck to a musical theme in their decoration of Miss Felten's house.

This was the figment of the imaginations of 50 Wesley Hall girls.

The men who live at Wickizers had some energy left over and they used it on this.

The Collegiate 4-H entered this float in the Homecoming parade, which set records in both size and spectators.

Hours of labor for a few minutes' show, but it's all a part of Homecoming.

Wesley Hall entered an extraordinarily beautiful birthday cake.

The Engineers' Club members showed their mechanical bent by producing this giant steam roller.

MORE MEMORIES OF THE HOMECOMING PARADE OF 1952.

The Custer Hall float, with Florine Brundage in the featured role.

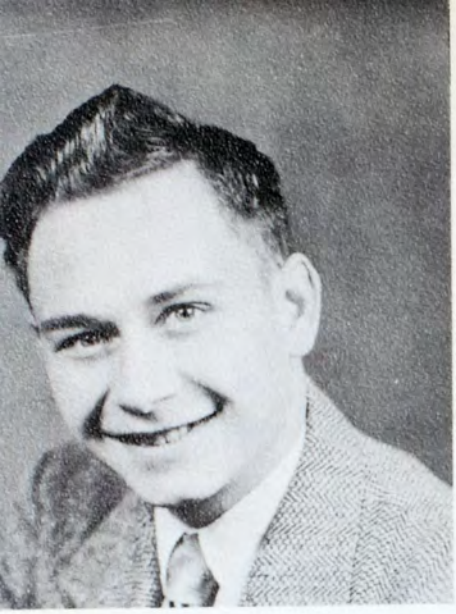

The Newman Club contrasted 1902 and 1952 dress, both on and off the gridiron.

This scarcely needs a caption. Who but the German Club???

ORGANIZATIONS

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

DON GENTZLER
Chairman, Board of Directors

In the course of the year the Fort Hays State A Cappella Choir has sung approximately twenty concerts. The Kansas towns which have enjoyed our choir in the fall and spring were Plainville, Palco, Hill City, Ellis, Ness City, Dighton, Scott City, Leoti, Tribune, Lincoln, Kinsley, Rozel, and others. Our choir also participated in the Anniversary Pageant and Christmas Vespers. Conductor is C. Thomas Barr, assisted by Phil Martin and Fritz Kramer. Chairman of the choir's Board of Directors is Don Gentzler; Secretary, Delores Young; Librarian, Rodney New; Assistant Librarian, Loren Wilson; Section Leaders, Jackie Schmutz, Betty Giebler, Annie McConnell, Martha Pate, Mike Williams, and Jim Maxwell. Serving as accompanists are Nancy Sigrist and Shirley Thomas.

BAND

The Fort Hays State College Band, with Harold G. Palmer as director, is comprised of students from all departments on the campus. With college instruments available for student use, the band has unusually well balanced instrumentation. The marching band played for all athletic events and the varsity band helped to promote pep at our basketball games. Participation in band concerts both here in Hays and on tour also adds to their year's activities.

PHILIP MARTIN
President

ORCHESTRA

The Hays Symphony Orchestra is made up of outstanding musicians from this part of the state including students and faculty here on the Fort Hays State campus, faculty and students from Hays High School, and also musicians from the surrounding communities. With Stanley Ballinger as director, the orchestra accompanies the community chorus in their productions, and also presents concerts here in Hays and on their southern Kansas tour in the spring.

MUSIC ENSEMBLES

A vocal ensemble and a male quartet were reorganized on our campus in 1952 for participation in various musical activities. The ensemble performs for alumni groups, publicity purposes and other outside work. Both the quartet and ensemble tour with the choir and by themselves at various times throughout the year, their presentations being varied by chorales, madrigals and songs in the popular vein.

James Fudge directs the vocal ensemble. The male quartet was organized by C. Thomas Barr.

Front Row: Glenn Ginther, Gilbert Brungardt, Charles Beltz, Loren Wilson.

EDWARD PROCTOR
President

Y.M.C.A.

The Young Men's Christian Association is a group of men on the campus advocating Christian ideals and activities. They work closely with the Y. W. C. A. in their meetings and social functions.

LEWIS FIELD STADIUM

ALBERT FOLLETT
President

With their card games, pillow fights, and gab sessions the men at Lewis Field Stadium have their share of fun in college life. They participate in the intramural program and are active in the other campus organizations. Officers for this group are President, Albert Follett, Vice-President, Virgil Wendler; Secretary, La Verne Tegtmeyer; Treasurer, Paul Longnecker. Serving as their sponsor is W. D. Moreland.

RESIDENCE HALL

BILL TEAFORD
President

Pinocle, story telling, and occasionally studying comprised much of the activity at Residence Hall during the past year. A Christmas party and fall and spring picnics are annual affairs at "the hall," but the boys usually capitalize on any excuse for additional "gala events." Another object of interest was the construction of the new men's dormitory, which is going up beside Residence.

Officers for the group are Bill Teaford, president; Eugene Anderson, vice-president; and Gordon Zahradnik, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Etta Miller serves as housemother.

PHI MU ALPHA

Phi Mu Alpha is a national honorary music fraternity for men. The group assumes a responsibility to foster an appreciation of music and an understanding of all types. Serving as president this year has been Jim Maxwell and helping as sponsors were Stanley Ballinger and Harold Palmer, both members of the Fort Hays State music faculty.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

Zeta Chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon has had a great history, but during the war the records were lost. Up to this time the records have not been found so a true historical picture of the chapter's development is not available. The group joined Phi Sigma Epsilon in 1931. In 1946 after being inactive during the war, the Sigs were reinstated on the campus with eleven old members and veterans.

This year the Tigers were the youngest team in the history of the school.

The squad, which averaged eighteen years old, consisted of fifty-five freshmen, twelve sophomores, seven juniors and three seniors.

Coach "Red" Huffman was able to field a fighting team. They were inexperienced but made up for it with their determination.

The Tigers' season record was very misleading and did not give a fair picture of the kind of team they had. Although they won only one game and tied two, they gave every team, even the best, a good game.

Donald "Rocky" Rorabaugh, one of Huffman's sixty-minute men, was named on the All-C.I.C. first team. "Rocky" is an eighteen-year-old junior from Smith Center, and has lettered three years here at F.H.S. He has been a sixty-minute man for the last two years and was a starting defensive guard when he came to Fort Hays State in '50.

Three seniors have ended their college football careers. They are Johnny Roth, Merle Garey, and Earl Minks. Johnny was a three-year letterman from Hays, and spent his three years playing halfback for the Tigers. Merle is a three-year Tiger letterman from Downs. He played his first year at Washburn. Merle was a main sparkplug in the Tigers' defense this year. Earl, from Greensburg, was a sparkling halfback and a good defensive man.

With all but the three seniors returning, "Red" has a very promising squad for next year.

Got 'im!

BASKETBALL 1952-53

Right in the thick contention throughout the season, the Fort Hays State Tigers offered no small surprise to the basketball fans around the C.I.C. After leading the league for several weeks, the Tigers fell short on a disastrous two-game road trip at the close of the season. They managed, however, to turn up with an undisputed second place in the tough conference race.

Working with the youngest squad in the conference, Coach Cade Suran depended largely on a foursome of sophomores — Melvin Christensen, Marvin Andrews, Bud Moeckel, and Glen Cooper. The fifth spot in the starting line-up was alternated between Jack Denison, only senior on the varsity, and Eugene Anderson, junior.

In scoring 333 points during the season, Melvin Christensen shattered the school's single-season scoring record, set only last season by all-C.I.C.-forward Bob Ziegler.

For the first time, a Central Conference tournament was held during the Christmas holidays in Hutchinson. The tournament had no bearing on the final conference standings, but did enable the teams to get some idea of what they would be up against later. At the affair, Fort Hays State was far off its usual standard of play and ended up in third place.

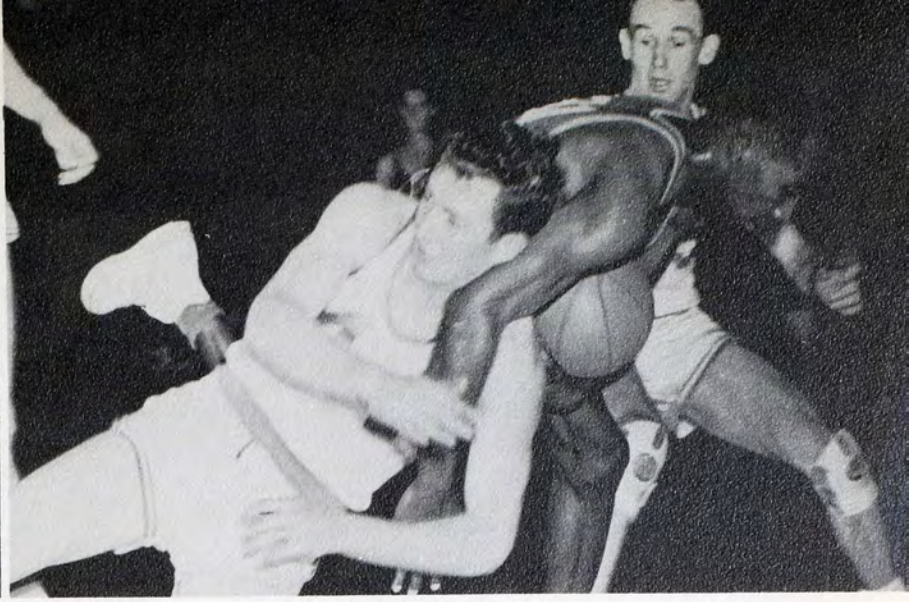

Cooper and Moeckel head for that all-important bit of leather.

Cade Suran had his picture taken with the 1951 trophy when his Tigers won his 100th victory.

Track CHAMPIONS ALL!

Reveille deadlines prevent any account of what happened during the 1953 track season, but there can be no harm in mentioning 1952 when the Tigers won (by the largest margin in many a year) the Central Intercollegiate Conference title.

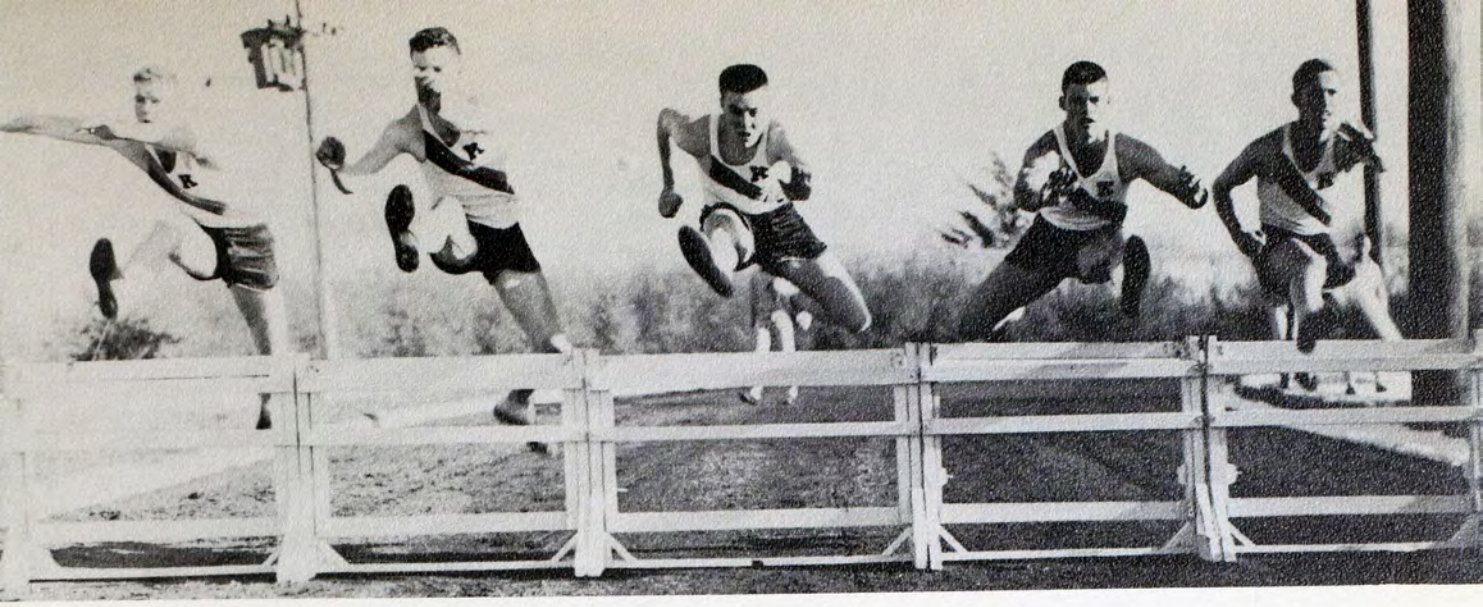

Pictured below is the 1952 track squad with the coveted conference trophy.

Tiger Dash Men for 1953

Running in the half-mile, mile, and two-mile runs are the following: Back Row: Alan Feist, Omer Knoll, Gerald Pfeifer, Lavern Lessor. Front Row: Ronald Hopkins, Merril Frydendall, Art Thomas, George Mills.

Tiger distance men show much promise for 1953 and several years to come.

TRACK

The only two returning Tigers who have tasted individual conference championships are shown above with Coach Alex Francis. On the left is Kayo McGillivray, 110-yard low hurdle winner in 1952, and on the right is Dean Thompson, who won the 880-yard run in 1951. The Tigers lost 36 conference points to service calls last summer, while graduation claimed none at all. Hopes for 1953 rest on a group made up principally of freshmen and sophomores.

Hopes for Tiger strength in field events rests in this group of young competitors.

There is work, as well as play, in an intramural program. The men who do it are shown at the left. Dean Thompson, student intramural manager; Gene Anderson, assistant student intramural manager; Alex Francis, intramural director.

Due to early deadlines for Reveille copy, the winners of the 1952-53 intramural championship cannot be announced in the 1953 Reveille. Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, winner of last year's competition took an early lead, however, and looked like a good prospect to repeat. More than half of the men students at Fort Hays State competed in the extensive intramural athletic program this year.

Phi Sigma Epsilon won the swimming championship, with the team shown at the right: Ronald Hopkins, Marion Gardner; Glen Riney, Kayo McGillivray, Ralph Purcell.

DRAMA

A series of student-directed one-act plays were presented March 6 in Picken Hall. "Purple Doorknob," a comedy of character by Walter Prichard Eaton, was directed by JoAnn Parsons. The cast consisted of Nancy Sigrist, Margaret Walker, and Coleen Young. Bill Samples directed Edna St. Vincent Millay's "Aria da Capo," a poetic fantasy and satire on the futility of war. Included in the cast were Bill Bigham, Donna Garret, Con Connel, Clell Harrison, and Bill Samples. Jacqulyn Clowers directed Susan Glaspell's "Suppressed Desires." The cast consisted of Joan Wilkerson, Evelyn Howell, and Harry Hunsley.

DEBATE

Professor James R. Start, debate director, gives advice to a couple of Fort Hays debate students.

Below, three members listen while Bill Samples presents his speech.

RADIO

CANDIDS

Eda Mae Toth and Bennie Frantz posed at the main entrance and found their picture in all sorts of places—even here!

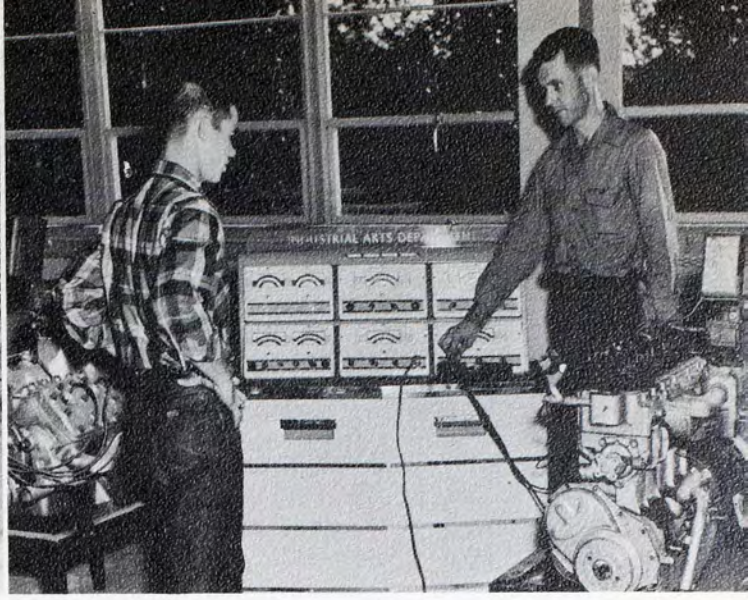

Joel Moss took time out from getting ready for his grand opening to sketch the east entrance.

ALL HAIL TO THE NEW APPLIED ARTS BUILDING!

And here it is in its entirety—before landscapers had gone to work, and before that strange new flag (which turned out to be the Kansas one) was raised.

In the new industrial arts wing—the one that stretches, they say, "clear to Yocemento," you can learn all sorts of mysterious but practical procedures.

Lolita Nelson and Phyllis Berland make good use of the wonderful light in its new sewing rooms.

Mary Anne Willour and Thelma Raines work on homecrafts under the watchful eye of Miss Ila Newbecker.

HOME ECONOMICS IN ITS SPACIOUS NEW QUARTERS

Modern is the word for the cooking department with its all-new equipment.

Gladys Losey at the potter's wheel.

Creation takes a variety of forms under Dee Graves' skilled fingers.

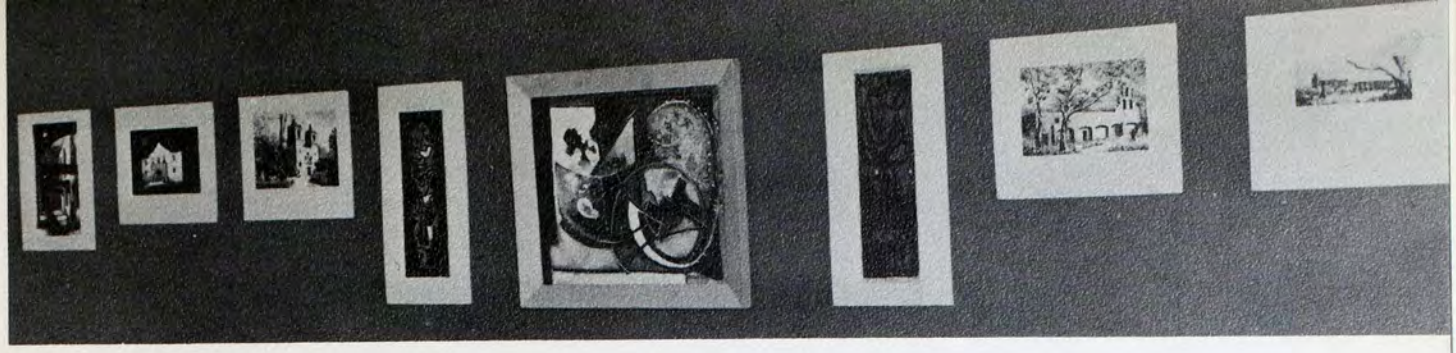

You name it, we have it—almost every type of art and craft is promoted or taught in the new art department.

Hanging in the art gallery in the new building are these pieces.

"Winter Evening," a watercolor by Henry Gasser, is a favorite of many gallery visitors.

THE STUDIO GUILD COLLECTION

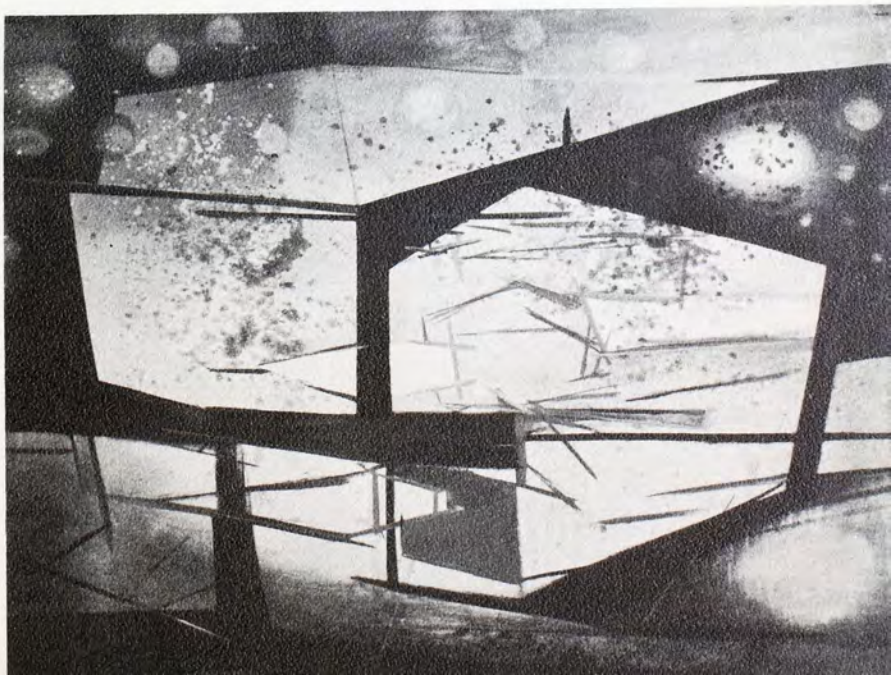

Shown for the first time at the official opening of the new Applied Arts Building was this new collection of 26 pieces of art, the gift to the college of members of the Studio Guild of New York.

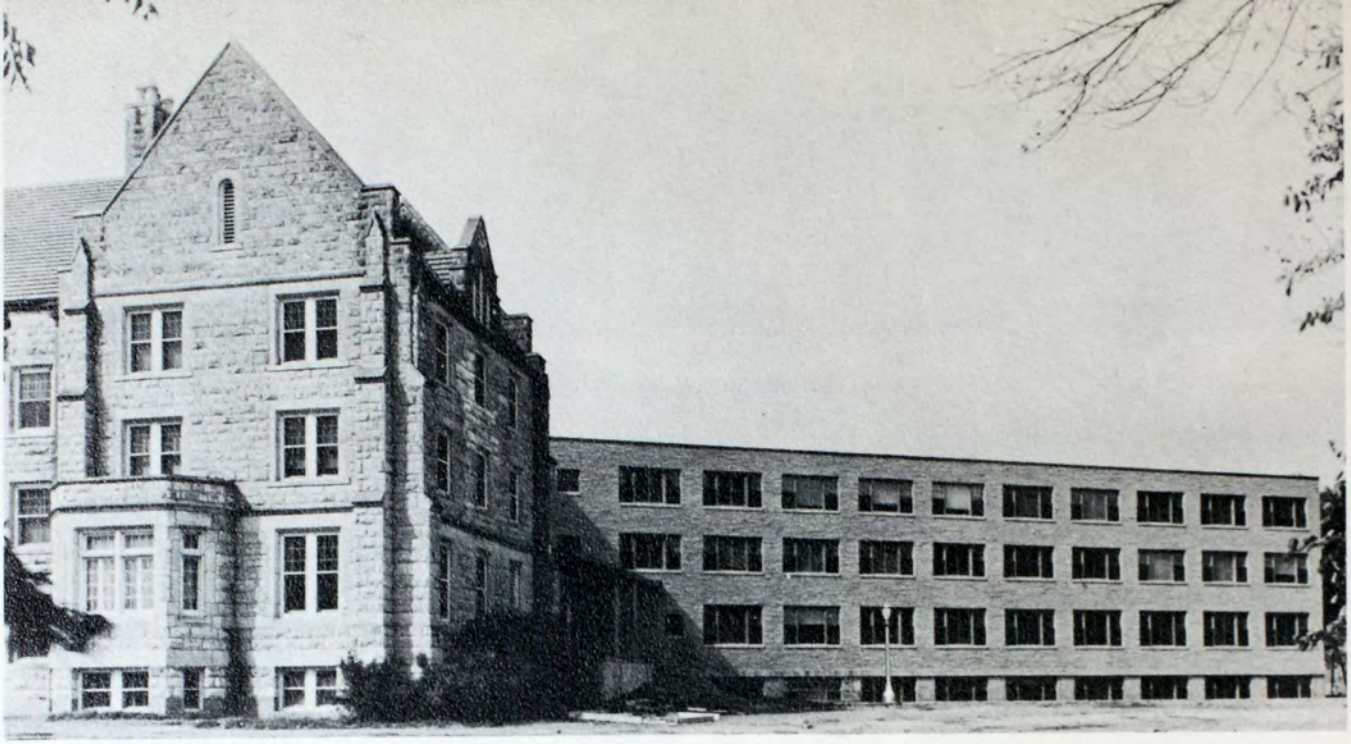

The collection represents a wide variety of art media, as well as a variety of types of art.

Anna Huntington Hyatt's sculpture, "Ship of the Desert."

William Saltzman's oil, "Magnetism," pleases the lovers of modern art.

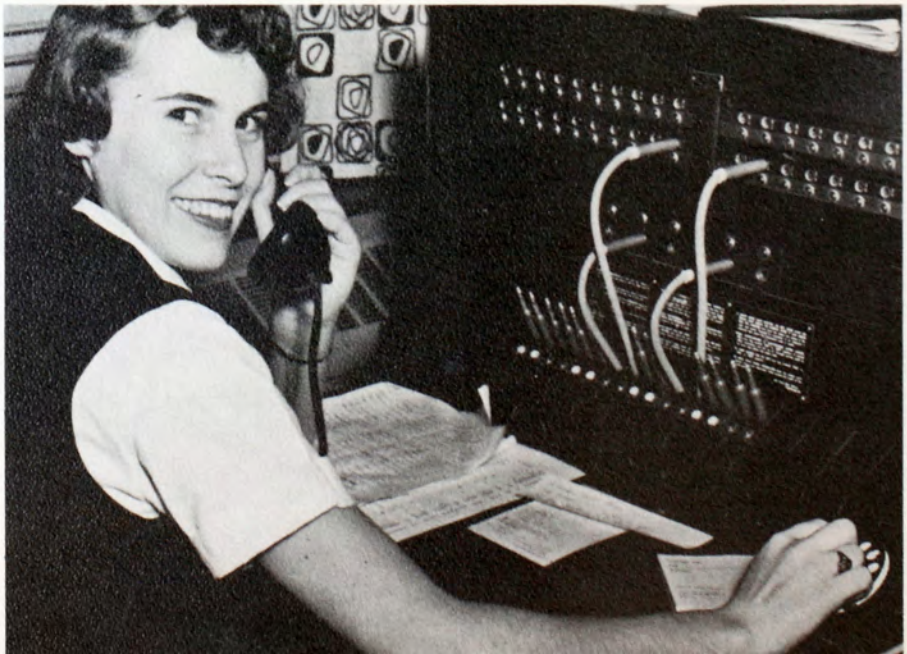

And this is Custer Hall, with its lovely new wing and its old one refurnished beyond recognition.

How vital the telephone at a college dormitory. Lela Mae Kreutzer takes a call with Phyllis Suiter waiting her turn.

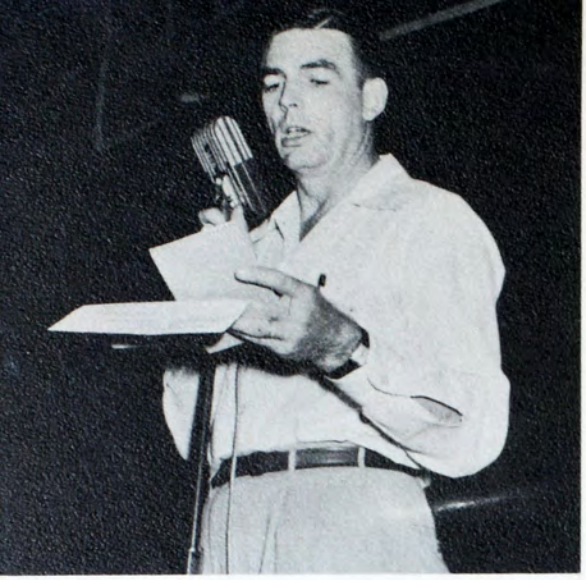

The Custer Hall switchboard handles calls for more than 200 willing women. Norma Auston makes it look interesting.

Inside Custer Hall's luxurious new parlors.

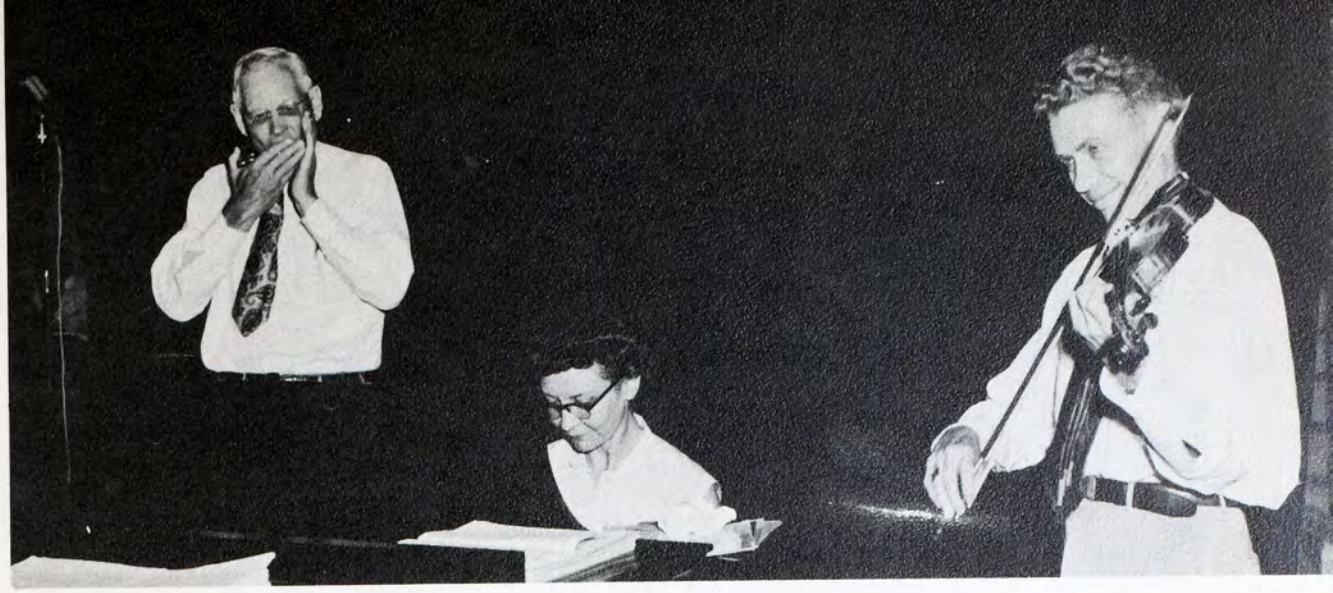

THE FRESHMEN MIXER

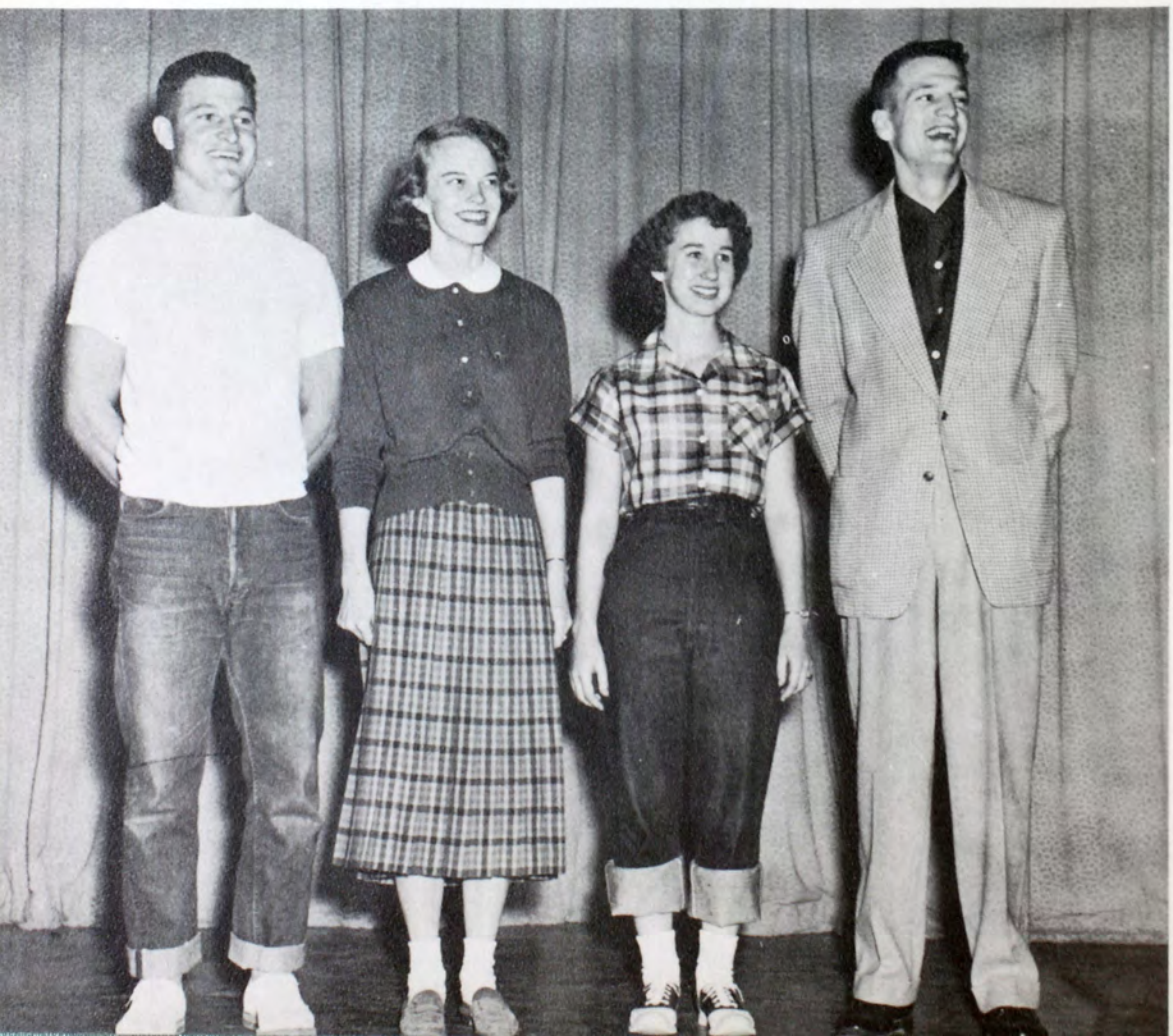

Sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., and the Newman Club, the freshman mixer was the first chance to get acquainted.

Valis Rockwell served as master of ceremonies at a program which included a grand march, a stunt program with balloons for the winners, and quite a lot of entertainment by the faculty (see the opposite page.)

Remember the fashion show — when the upperclassmen showed the freshman what to wear and when to wear it?

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Future Teachers of America, a national collegiate organization to promote the teaching profession, was organized on the Fort Hays State campus during the first semester too late for its conclusion in the Organizations Section of the Reveille. Phyllis Acheson heads the organization as president. Other officers, who are pictured receiving their charge from President M. C. Cunningham, include Danelda St. Aubyn, librarian; Wilda Smith, parliamentarian; Louis Banker, treasurer. In the back row are Bob Archer, secretary; Robert Smith, vice-president; and Richard Wolford, song leader.

A group of faculty members and visiting educators at the installation services of Future Teachers of America.

CAMPUS PERSONALITIES

Four foreign countries are represented among the student body at Fort Hays State.

Shown at the right are Nilda Pastrana, Puerto Rico; Renate Naste, the U.N.E.S.C.O. scholarship student from Austria; Fritz Kramer and Cecilie Hoegele, who came to America as displaced persons from Austria; Dorothy Tokushige, Hawaii; and Alfonso Pastrana, Nilda's brother also from Puerto Rico.

Barbara Bohannon, a gal with pep and words to spare. She also whistles.

Derryl Goes, drummer supreme.

DORMITORY LIFE HAS MANY MOMENTS

Sherryl and Carol Jenkins, twins from Norton, find a double room just what they need to make their double life complete.

"You can always find someone to talk to," is all too true.

The girls in this "pajama lounge" scene dressed up a bit for the picture-taking. It's not always this formal.

IT'S LOTS OF FUN TO BE A QUEEN!

Evelyn Gardiner is escorted by the King of Hearts, "Rocky" Rorabaugh.

Phyllis Way gets a congratulatory kiss from President Cunningham.

Liz Belden gets her hand held by Tex Beneke.

STILL GROWING WITH HAYS AND COMMUNITY

Capital and Surplus of $400,000

Total Resources Over $7,000,000

This strengthening of our Capital Structure is, we believe, justified by our confidence in the business future of Hays and the entire part of Western Kansas. We are now in position to keep growing with Hays and community, and serving our customers better and better, as we have been doing since 1888.

A Few Words To The Students Of Fort Hays State

The reading of a daily newspaper is a broad education in itself. The daily paper affords a background of general information which no one can obtain in any other way.

Few college students need to be told this, it goes without saying, but there may be young men and young women attending Fort Hays State who do not know the Hays Daily News has complete coverage of world-wide, national, state and home news on every weekday except Saturday, and on Sunday as well. The Sunday Morning News also has features and a comic section as well. The over-all news coverage provided is that of the Associated Press, the world's largest news-gathering agency.
